

William Richard White

Son of Louise Wilson and Peter Jones

Husband of Amy

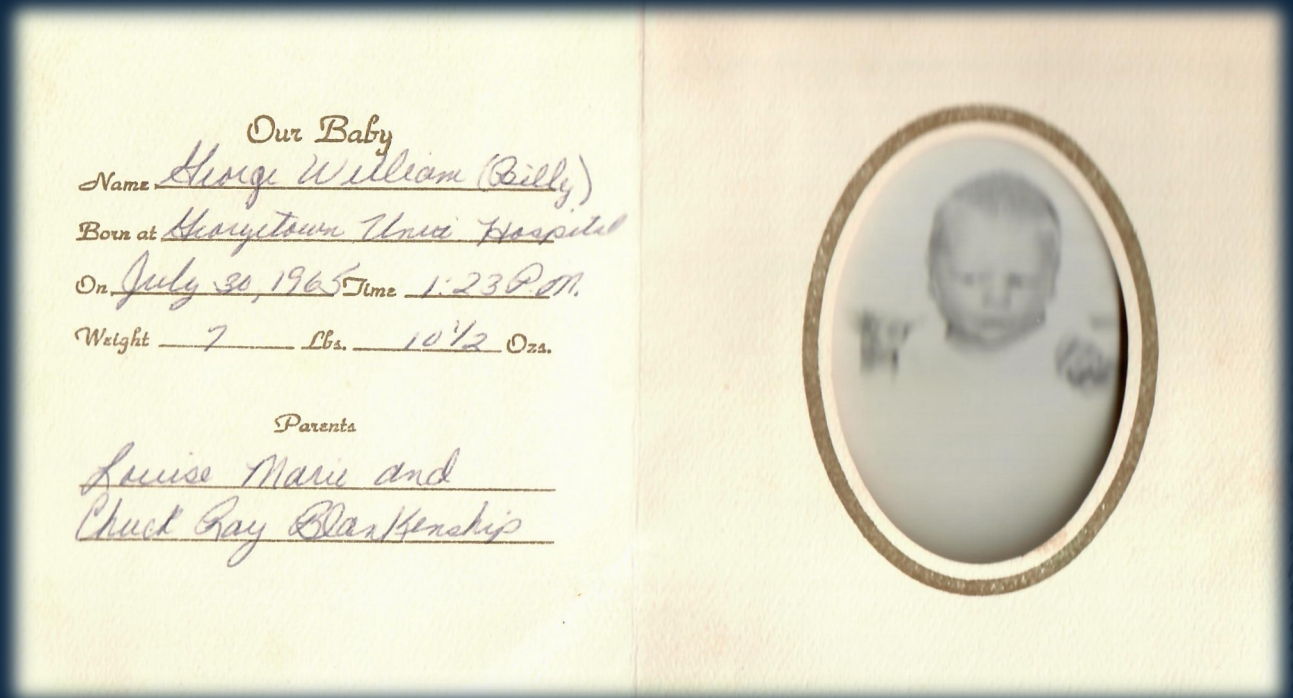

Father of Sarah and Ember

Our story begins on July 30, 1965

Georgetown University Hospital, Washington DC

Baby boy, 7 lbs 10 ½ ounces

Bill grew up on the farm outside of Cando, and at the Diamond-D ranch in Devils Lake

Bill loved animals, reading, and anything mechanical

Bill bought a boat ...

Bought in Connecticut, summer
2006

Sailed it to Virginia over 2 months
(and 1 tropical storm)

Bill was an exceptional mariner and navigagor

He sailed his boat single-handed from Groton, Connecticut to the Chesapeake Bay – a 400-mile journey

Bill navigated the busy and treacherous East River past Manhattan and the Statue of Liberty

Bill needed a boat to get to his boat

He named it “Tupperware” because it was all plastic except the oars

We took both our boats to St Michaels, Maryland, for a weekend on the water

Bill's boat was named "Tritanic" for its 3-hull trimaran
design

Sometimes we all just need a nap with a buddy

Bill loved North Dakota

The land
The sky
The crops
The people
